Why should you mentor?

- Receive initial training and ongoing support.
- Volunteer just one hour every two weeks.
- Work one-to-one with a young person aged 10-17 on academic, social and future skills.
- Develop your own skills, including communication and leadership.
- Gain experience for your CV.
- Make a real difference to a young person's life.

"I volunteer because supporting and building a relationship with a young person and helping them develop their skills is rewarding and fun."

Finn, University Student Mentor

I'm a mentor because even helping one young person realise their strengths can have a really big impact."
